

A close-up, low-angle shot of a gas range burner. The burner is a dark, cylindrical metal piece with a central nozzle. It is surrounded by a grid of metal grates. Bright blue flames are visible, rising from the burner and spreading across the grates. The lighting is dramatic, with the blue of the flames contrasting against the dark metal and the warm, yellowish glow of the burner's tip.

thor

Gas Range Static Oven

OVEN RANGES

Heavy duty metal dial controls
Manual cooktop controls valves

215mm removable back flue

Heavy duty, robust cast iron cooking trivets with unique parallel design to assist with arrangement of pots and pans on the cook top

Heavy duty cast iron burners
Efficient 32.5 MJ per burner output
Flame failure safety as standard

Removable face panel for easy service

Heavy duty, double skinned pull down open door

Standard 490x595x354(24" oven) 675x595x354(36" oven) static oven comes with 2 oven racks

Vitreous enameled oven door liner and oven base plate

TR-6

4" stainless steel front rail

Removable crumb trays

Thermostatic controlled oven
100-300 degrees c

6" adjustable feet

Stainless steel exterior including panels

Optional Model: TR-4

4 open burner with oven 490x415x355

Optional Model: TR-4-G12

4 burner, 12" Griddle, with stand oven

Optional Model: TR-6

6 open burner with stand oven

Accessories

Casters

Oven racks

